

Please keep the media from becoming centered in the hands of large corporations. The public needs to hear all points of view! And we need to hear it from sources that are not driven by profit and fed by corporate sponsorship. Keep our information diverse and genuine by making the profit of media be in spreading truth, not in making money. Thank you.